

Website Terms of Use

Your use of the Riverview Law Office, PLLC website represents your agreement to comply with all terms, including notices, of this site. Riverview Law Office, PLLC may change these terms at any time, and your use is subject to the changes. Such changes to these Terms of Use are effective upon posting on the Website and your use of the website after such posting will constitute your acceptance of such changes. If you do not accept these terms, do not use this website. Use or reproduction of the content or materials for any purpose not expressly permitted by Riverview Law Office, PLLC in writing is prohibited. Riverview Law Office, PLLC reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate your access to all or part of this site, with or without notice.

Disclaimer

All materials, information and services included in or available through this site are provided “as is” and “as available” for your use. Riverview Law Office, PLLC disclaims all warranties of any kind, either express or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement. Riverview Law Office, PLLC does not warrant that the content of this or any related Website is accurate, reliable or correct; that this Website will be available at any particular time or location; that any defects or errors will be corrected; or that the content is free of viruses or other harmful components. Your use of this website is solely at your risk. Because some jurisdictions do not permit the exclusion of certain warranties, these exclusions may not apply to you.

Limitation of Liability

Riverview Law Office, PLLC and its suppliers shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, punitive, incidental, special or consequential damages that result from the use of, or inability to use, this site. This limitation applies whether the alleged liability is based on contract, tort, negligence, strict liability or any other basis, even if Riverview Law Office, PLLC has been advised of the possibility of such damage. In jurisdictions that do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, liability shall be limited to the extent permitted by law.

Your Responsibility

You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of the username and password assigned to you. You are fully responsible for all activities that occur under your username and password. You agree to (1) immediately notify Riverview Law Office, PLLC of any unauthorized use of your username or password or any other breach of security; and (2) ensure that you properly log-out and exit from your account at the end of each session. Riverview Law Office, PLLC will not be liable for any loss or damage arising from your failure to comply with this provision. You should use particular caution when accessing your account from a public or shared computer so that others are not able to view or record your password or other personal information. If you share your computer with others, you may wish to consider disabling your automatic sign-in feature.
